How children learn languages

There are lots of different ways to learn a language. Sometimes it's hard to know where to start. But don't worry - we're here to help!

This week, our expert researcher, Coreen Docherty, gives you some interesting facts about how children learn best.

What kind of learner is my child?

Watch your children playing. What do they enjoy doing? Puzzles and problem-solving? Physical play and sports? Word games? Writing stories? Creative play? Try doing these types of activities in English and make a note of what your

The screenshot shows the Cambridge English Language Assessment website. The header includes the logo and navigation menu with options like Home, Why Cambridge English?, Exams, Learning English, Teaching English, News, Events, and Help. The main heading is 'Teaching English'. A sidebar on the left lists categories such as Resources for teachers, Cambridge English Teaching Framework, Teaching qualifications and courses, Cambridge English Teacher, and Become a Cambridge English examiner. The main content area features three sections: 'Prepare for tomorrow's lesson' with free teaching resources, 'Plan your professional development' with the Cambridge English Teaching Framework and Teacher Development Tracker, and 'Develop your teaching skills and methods' with international teaching qualifications and courses. A 'Cambridge English Teacher' membership promotion and a 'Update Newsletter' sign-up are also visible on the right side.

Cambridge English TV
